Housing Authority of the City of Hartford Announces Solicitation for Development Partner(s)

April 23, 2013– Hartford, Connecticut -The Housing Authority of the City of Hartford (HACH) announced today that it is requesting proposals from experienced developers for the redevelopment of Westbrook Village and Chester Bowles Park.

The request is a result of countless hours of work by the staff of the HACH, resident representatives from the Chester Bowles Park Tenants Association and the Westbrook Village Tenants Association, The City of Hartford, and various other community stakeholders. A specific process was outlined and followed to enable meaningful resident participation in an advisory capacity during the planning, implementation and monitoring of the major physical transformation anticipated for Chester Bowles Park and Westbrook Village.

Proposals for the redevelopment of one or both properties must be received by the Housing Authority of the City of Hartford on or before 3:00 PM on July 8, 2013.

Interested developers may obtain Solicitation for Development Partner(s) #1700-13 beginning today by downloading the entire Solicitation at www.hartfordhousing.org under Headlines and the icon labeled “Bowles Park, Westbrook Village Bidding Opportunities.

A pre-submission meeting will be held for all potential Proposers on May 9, 2013, at 12:00 P.M., in the 2nd Floor Conference Room of the Housing Authority of the City of Hartford, 180 Overlook Terrace, Hartford, Connecticut. Attendance at this meeting is not mandatory but all potential proposers are strongly encouraged to attend.

The Housing Authority of the City of Hartford is dedicated to providing safe, decent and affordable high quality housing and homeownership choices for City residents.
